Please note that reading this information will have an effect on you. You will energetically be linked with the Channelling being and a similar process facilitated with you. It is not exactly the same as being in the presence of the channelling Master, however the effects are just as powerful. Do not concern yourself too much regarding time lines given to the participants in the channelling. You will be taken through a similar one in accordance with your Divine Plan, Timing & Purpose.

I am Mary Magdalene, greetings and welcome to all of you today.
I stand within the presence of the Divine Violet and Golden flames of the Golden Age. These flames have manifested within your presence and within your being serving as gateways into the Divine worlds of reunion with the Light.

All of you, as I am sure you already know, are Divine aspects of the Gold and Violet flames of our cosmic parents. These flames are the ones that burn brightly inside of you, fueling your inspiration and driving you to move forward and continue gaining power over that which creates the perception of limitation and fear.

The activation we are conducting with all of you today is one that will challenge your belief systems on a very deep level. The reason why I tell you this is because you are ready to embrace a different level of quantum perception. There are influences that you are affected by that are deliberately programmed into your environment so as to distract you. Some of you have been sensing the presence of this deliberate distraction. You have felt the uneasiness of something not being quite comfortable. This is already your physical confirmation that you have moved beyond many of the levels of density that keep humanity's perception in the lower vibrations of conscious perception. What I am about to tell you may stretch your imagination and most importantly it will stretch your mind. Your mind needs this exercise because it has become rigid in its ability to move beyond the parameters set in place by the old paradigms that keep you locked in an attitude that feeds your belief systems and current perceptions of life.

I am not here to feed any conspiracy theories, however, it is important that you know that not all of your conspiracy theorists are paranoid or neurotic. In fact much of what they have discovered is in fact true and you have all heard that very often truth is far stranger than fiction and sometimes it is more difficult to digest the truth than it is to digest illusion.

There have been experiments conducted that have changed your world dramatically. These experiments have already challenged the theory of relativity and many of Einstein's other theories. There have been experiments conducted in the year of 2000 to be specific and in these experiments they managed to move faster than the barriers of light permit movement. Now what this means is that there is evidence that something can be in two places at the same time, but what it even does more, which will stretch your imagination now, is that it defies the law of cause and effect. Now one does not have to have a cause for an effect to manifest, this means your power to be in more than one place at one time without a cause, without motive, and without intention is possible. In fact it is being done already. It is vital that your consciousness takes these words in because this is part of the matrices we are dismantling at this time. The governments have mastered much of this already, it is also known as remote viewing and remote interference or influence. What this means is that they can reach an altered state of consciousness working from levels that the average human being can not work from as yet, simply because that power eludes them. Remote viewing and remote influencing means you are able to tune into every single probable outcome in your future based on where you are currently at, and you can ask which of those futures is the most probable; which one is the most beneficial in terms of your learning, your journey - so which one would be of best benefit to you and with that knowledge you can then move forward, you can create and you can influence the dynamics of your life and all life in fact like never before, and this is where the true essence of magic and miracles manifest. You as a group are drawing the energy of that realm into the physical field of planet earth and you are drawing it into the physical field of your own body, right into the space around your atoms. The atomic structure in your body knows all of this already. It was made from that power it was birthed within that essence. It has all of that knowledge and over the months that lie ahead of you we will work with you in assisting you in activating the dormant parts of your brain that hold that technology, in other words the power to become an empowering vehicle of creation.

It is vital that your mental programming begin to move beyond the limited constructs of the old paradigm matrices which have kept humanity in that state of victim consciousness. What this will do is lead to a revolution of such immense proportions that your world will shift its energy in what will appear a heart beat. And this is what you will know as 2012, a time when your world will not be as you know it. This is your time to grasp this notion, your time to embrace the power that exists within the quantum world around you and the quantum world inside of you. This is the beginning stage of you learning how to teleport yourself, how to be in more than one place at the same time and consciously participating within both places at the same time, never losing yourself or fragmenting your soul in any way whatsoever.

I assure you this is absolutely nothing to do with strange metaphysical wishful, creative thinking, this is science, it is fact and I urge any one of you to look up the work of Dr. Wang, he is the one who conducted the experiment I have spoken to you about. It has been proven that one can be in more than one place at the same time and that the laws of cause and effect is part of a limited consciousness. It is changing. This will challenge the parts inside of you that are addicted to any kind of victim consciousness. This I am sure will help you understand why Kuthumi has been so adamant in his teachings regarding taking responsibility for your life by becoming an active participant within your life; it has all been for a purpose.

These new energies will show you how you can heal your body with a simple intention. How you can change the dynamics within any environment simply by choosing which one to focus your energy on. This power of remote viewing is not psychic hocus pocus. Again I must tell you, it is a very real science and every act of a psychic ability, clairvoyance, clairaudience, claircognisience, all of these so called out of this world gifts, have nothing to do with being out of this world, they are in fact in side you in your inner world, those mechanisms neatly tied up within your brain. So the dormant aspects of your brain are the ones, the parts that are housing this phenomena. And you are now ready to explore it. This is challenging the dark aspects of life like never before. Darkness as you know it is simply the absence of light, in other words, the absence of love. So the journey beyond the veils of the old paradigm requires of you the faith and the trust in the power that lies within the unexplored aspects of yourself. The place where angels fear to tread, the place where fools rush in, but in this case you are fools of light, full of light. Full of courage. The determination to bypass every single old paradigm program that has told you "do not go there, you do not want to know what lies within the depths of your subconscious, there is far too much that will frighten you. No, no no..." I urge you to go inside there, to play with yourself in those realms. For it is in those realms where you will find what you have been searching for for this entire life time and the cycles before this one which has lead to you constantly coming back for more because that hunger has not as yet been satisfied. What you seek has not been found. You are now in that position to find it. This is what brings so many souls to planet Earth at this time, because this is a cosmic event where every single eye is upon you because this has never been experienced before.

The time has also come where all the dark contracts are ending. What this means is that all of the karmic contracts that where in place between souls, that bound them to beings of other planes that did not embody light, has ended. So now the journey entails many processes of anchoring all the seeds of light in all the necessary places. This gives light to those places which reignites the violet and golden flames, and in every point where the violet and golden flame is reignited, so the portals to the dimensions I am speaking to you of, are opened, and you will witness magic, and from that magic the miracles will be born. Those miracles are the manifestation of victory consciousness of unconditional love and prosperity consciousness where souls can come together honouring the Christ Light within one another and this is part of the anchoring of the 999 celebration.

Entertain the ideas that you are so much more than you will ever be able to comprehend, and over the next three years you are going to undergo development that now you cannot even begin to fathom. It is not in your mind's capability to even imagine it. But I assure you what you are about to discover will change your life forever, it is changing the course of your personal history because you can. With these newly discovered powers in terms of what you will discover about yourself now, can in actual fact change history, change the effects that history has on the consciousness of humanity. Nicola Tesla knew how to do this. Einstein was catching a glimpse of it but did not quite know how to deal with it. He was not very happy with quantum energy because it is so volatile. Why is it so volatile? because it is able to be transmuted, transformed and altered in any way one chooses. Those who are considered the darker energies, the darker forces have been using that technology to keep humanity in a state of entrapment. That is how all of you have been controlled in what is known as the matrix. So in order to break the matrix, not only of the paradigm that you currently find yourself in but the matrices for all who are coming from where you have been, and those who are in front of you, your star brothers and sisters who are dismantling the matrices for you to pass through, becomes a journey of such incredible empowerment, of the most amazing manifestation of magic and miracles that there will be times I will assure you, you will stop and weep because it will feel as though it is unbelievable. This is not to say that you will never face a life lesson again or that you will never face a challenge or an obstacle again. What it means is that you are in a position to consciously choose what you need to best learn. Remember I spoke about remote viewing earlier on and remote influencing of those paradigms. This speeds up the entire journey of the souls learning process. This allows many dimensions to be experienced.

As you move beyond the dimensions of the old paradigm you are clearing the many layers of dark consciousness, the cells of ignorance that have been held in mother Earth's body. These are held within stagnant and dormant fields. These dormant fields will now be dismantled, and filled with the energy of Christ light. It will take approximately 18 months for this cleansing to be complete on a planetary level. Each of you however will undergo a far more accelerated version of this. All you are doing is tapping into a technology that is already being used, that was hidden from you. No longer is this power going to be kept away from the souls who choose the journey to freedom. In order for the old to be transmuted there needs to be equal amounts of its opposite in power. Therefore the light is increasing in power to override what the darkness has perpetuated over the last 3000 years. And you and every other worker of the light is being offered this opportunity, whether you take it or not is of course your decision.

So beloved ones we ask you now to close your eyes and imagine yourself energetically connected to Mt. Zion. Welcome master Jesus into your personal energy space.

Call upon all the angels of light who work with you and who are assisting us in anchoring this divine plan of light. Welcome Lord Maitreya and of course your own personal guides, angels and guardians. Imagine a beautiful violet and golden flame in the centre of your heart. Both these flames are aspects of the collective flame of divine illumination. Violet and gold are the colours of golden consciousness. Their frequencies are gateways to the golden paradigm, to golden consciousness. Imagine yourself being surrounded by this exquisite gold and violet colour, and the energy of the flames growing in strength inside of you. The light they emit shines on the pathway that you have chosen to walk in this life time. Its vibrations also penetrate the lobes of your brain, igniting new energy inside of the structure of your brain, sending additional currents of electrical energy through it. While that is taking place, feel the light of the golden violet flames moving down through your body and connecting with Mother Earth forming a divine union between you and her. I Mary Magdalene stand along side you, feel the warmth of my hand holding yours. While I hold your hand, my energy receives energy from the Source of All that Is and this energy is transferred into your body, facilitating a very necessary recalibration ensuring that the frequencies in your body are adjusted and this adjustment will ensure that the activation of the dormant aspects of your brain will continue to grow.

As time goes on we will be presenting to you exercises, meditations, and techniques that are to be practiced on a regular basis to strengthen the power of remote viewing of your power to work with yourself in the future as well as to work with yourself in the past. This power has been abused but you now who are the walkers of light, you are setting the record straight and it was at the time where the story of Jesus's abuse was played out where 30 billion implants were placed within the earth. These implants emit frequencies of sound that block the brain's ability to move above a certain level of consciousness. The levels of consciousness you will begin tuning into are those levels you experience when you are in a sleep state. With practice you will be able to tune into those levels consciously without having to fall into a deep sleep. Therefore all the work that is being conducted at this time and what you are currently participating in as well as every effort you make to transform your own life disarms all of these implants. This will bring the return of life to mother earth's body. Her flesh which you know as soil, will become rich again. Her body has been depleted as much as yours has. The violet and golden flames attract all the energies necessary to replenish her body as well as yours. Breathe golden violet energy into your body with every breath that you take in, every exhalation is symbolic of releasing the old and the more you breathe in these colours the stronger your light becomes. Every cell in your body is now manifesting a violet and golden flame; these flames are now moving into your DNA then into your molecules and then into the atoms of your body. Every organ inside of your body is being fed with this energy and this alters the structure of your magnetic field creating a violet and gold energy field around you, and this field serves as a mechanism of protection against the vibrations that are emitted through this advanced technology that has kept you in a state of victim consciousness. These frequencies feed humanities fear, it feeds the negative ego and what you know as survival consciousness. These energies have played on humanities psychology, it has altered the mind's ability to perceive the vibrations beyond the lower frequencies. And this is the journey you are now ready to take. Imagine many layers peeling away from your body and imagine these layers to be representations of the old paradigm's limited ways of experiencing life. Imagine every attachment inside of you and every attachment that comes to you from your external world that keeps you attached to fear, to self doubt, to self sacrifice, and to the need to control your environment, motivated by fear, falling away. This is being done and you will master this because you are working with science, a very powerful energy. This is not something that is made up of a story that will only happen if you believe in it, it is happening, you are simply being shown what is real, you are being shown what has been happening and how you can alter the systems.

The violet and golden flames are very important protection mechanisms, living within the modern world is a challenge in itself, you are exposed to many levels of density and darkness. Ignoring this darkness, in other words trying to convince yourself that it does not exist is dangerous, fearing it to the extent that you are paralyzed by it is dangerous, but being aware of it there and knowing that you have the power to counteract it is what puts you in the most powerful position you will ever be in. So acknowledge now to yourself that you are willing to step into no mans land, that you are going to be the fool who will rush into that unexplored territory of your deeper self. Ask that every tool you need to fully activate the ability to perceive what we have spoken of coming to you under grace and divine and miraculous ways. All of you are responsible for creating the new world, stepping out of the 3rd dimensional world, the 4th and the 5th dimensional worlds, all of which are still greatly influenced by the dormancy energies.

Every where you go you will be anchoring this reunion of light grid, the reunion of the light grid is where all the units of light inside of you emanating the frequencies of the violet and golden flame will automatically open the heart of that which seeks the same light. So visualize the left side of your body filled with the violet flame, the right side of your body filled with the golden flame, and now imagine the two flames wrapping around one another like two lovers, embracing each other and becoming one, for these are the energies of oneness that you are igniting inside of you and anchoring on earth. And it is this frequency of oneness that will help to completely transform victim consciousness into victory consciousness.

Now focus your attention on the flames in your hearth chakra and project billions of these flames into the world around you and visualize these flames dismantling all of the cellular codings of abuse — the rejection of light — the fear of power — the rejection of innocence — the fear of purity — the fear of love — the rejection of self — and imagine these unified flames penetrating every paradigm created that embodies the memories of trauma and abuse. And while this is happening, so the dimensional portals open up for all the souls of those children who were slain by King Herod to begin moving into the paradigms of freedom. And as every soul is set free they become additional light, attracting those of higher awareness into the dimensions of expanded consciousness. This energy weaves itself through each of you, creating the grids of reunion with the light. And this begins to activate the 12 Plans of New Life that Lord Matraya is bringing to the earth grids, this is literally encoding Mother Earth with 12 New Pathways of Destiny. These frequencies will be perfectly aligned with each person who has chosen to step beyond the 12 dimensional energy frequencies and work through the universal rays of divine illumination. Imagine your entire earth flooded with this violet and golden energy. The flames burning through every single veil of illusion that has prevented humanity from recognising their power.

It is important for you to know and to understand that not every human being on your planet will grasp this idea. There will still be millions of people who choose to remain within a state of unconsciousness. That is their choice, however there are still many souls who are seeking, who have the potential to fully embrace this energy, and these are the ones that need this light most, and those of you who chose to break the mould – you are the forerunners, you are the ones preparing the way, so breathe this light into your body, acknowledging that you are a representation of the Christ Light, and all of these frequencies are being attuned into the different areas of mother Earth's body and the golden flame will be anchored in Egypt, the violet flame in Greece – those two energies merging together, forming a Divine union of Oneness, there will also be the anchoring of the golden flame in Israel and the violet flame in Jordan, and the two energies linking together as one. These four flames represent the Unity Consciousness that is being anchored on Earth as we speak. As these four flames become pairs of light so the unification of the light within you will merge with Christ. Some of you will find yourself merging with a physical human being; with this merging process you are anchoring that light through each of you bringing it into earth. During this time, any couples uniting with the conscious awareness of what this energy represents are being utilized as conduits for the golden and violet flames to be united in this manner.

So now tune into the Christ inside of you, the part of you that knows everything about you, and ask this part of you now to activate and to set fully in motion everything required in your life to move you beyond the barriers of the old world, to stretch your mind beyond the old paradigms and into its full essence of power, into the true world of magic and miracles, for then you become the manifestation. Kuthumi has said to you before, in order to experience a miracle, become the miracle. You are magical beings, and therefore can easily manifest miracles. This is your time of really experiencing this. Do not become disheartened or disillusioned if within the next 24 hours you are not doing any of this magical operations. Patience my dear ones. Know that the more you practice it, the stronger it will become, and with the techniques we will be presenting in the not too distant future you will be amazed at what changes for you. In the mean time, hold your focus on that intention, that there is so much more to you than meets the eye, that you have been deliberately kept underground and that you are now like a seed that is breaking the soil to see the sun for the first time, to meet your new lover for the first time, remember the first touch, the first kiss, it will be the same. For this is the first touch of that greater you, and the first kiss of new life. Exhilarating I assure you. You will experience your body tingling with new life, your mind active with new information, new ideas and so much joy inside of you that sleep will become something that you will forget about. Not high on your list of priorities because there will be too much of life to experience. But sleep you will need, even if it is just two hours, you must give yourself some time to re-charge yes. So, embrace these two flames pulling them into you and through you, extending them around you and anchoring them as a greater part of you. Which becomes a greater part of the earth. Every step you take leaves the imprint of the gold and violet flames, everywhere you walk these imprints will be left. And the gold and violet flames have just one very important aspect that must be practiced, it is imperative otherwise the flames will die and if you do not do this, oh my goodness, your life will fall apart, and if you do not abide by this law, there is no hope for you and that law is, have fun, play and celebrate life, that is the law of the violet and golden flames

Playfulness reunites you with the power of the spirit of the inner child. That is what feeds your innocence which in truth as you know is your inner-sense ability. Having fun connects you with vibrations that cannot be tuned into in any other way. Laughter is the best medicine for a very specific reason, because of the frequencies that are activated inside your body and celebration is in fact a ceremony of gratitude, celebrating is giving thanks, and that is what you need to do. All of you, even if you celebrate on your own, play, have fun, celebrate life. The more you celebrate life the more of it you will have to experience, the more of it you will have to celebrate. So now bring your consciousness back into the physical body, bringing yourself into the here and now, the current time line of this moment. And as you bring that energy into the current time line you bring with you all the violet and golden energies. All the chakras in your body tingling, alive, celebrating the potential of what lies before you. All your chakras open to receive all of that new energy filling you, there to fill others as you express it. You will find this energy at times intoxicating. Some of you may even find that when you encounter a person who is full of life, who is full of joy and light, their energy is intoxicating because it is such a high vibration coming through them; you have heard before that beauty is only skin deep, and when you see someone who is so exquisitely beautiful from the inside, that beauty becomes intoxicating because it is not something that is defined by humanities terms, it is the light of Christ wrapping its energies around you and loving you. Greeting you and kissing you with its power. When you meet such a person embrace them, drink of that energy because it is there to be shared, and you are such a person. Maybe some of you have forgotten this and it is your life experiences that have put a lid on that happy bottle of life. Take it off now and be joyous, and when you do have your off days perhaps when you do not feel as intoxicating as you would like to – it does not matter because that energy has been acknowledge and those down days will be very short lived. Sometimes you will experience what feels like sadness or grief, depression and fragmentation because your energy is recalibrating itself and it is natural for you as human beings to feel a level of mourning as something moves away – if something dies inside of you, even if it is something that is not serving you anymore, it is still a part of you that is leaving or being completely transformed, so embrace it, feel it, and then continue. Rejoice in experiences you have attracted to yourself. Celebrate with the new knowings that you have in terms of where your energy and your capabilities are now extending to. And every day indulge in the ideas of you being able to move your mind into worlds that have not been explored by the masses before.

Beloved ones, the energy of the angels who brought the message of Jesus Christ's coming are in this Presence with you. They have come to notify you of the coming of Christ, this means the coming of a whole new wave of Christ energy. The 999 was the coming of Christ in the form of the golden egg of peace, but as this Christ now emerges from inside of you a new world is being born, it is the true dawning of the golden age, the age of Aquarius. Lord Maitreya will continue to assist you in anchoring all the 12th dimensional grids inside of your body and ensuring that the reunion of light grid will be maintained in its Divine frequency, keeping you connected to all the new energies. These energies will flush out of your system the imprints related to abuse, where you have been the victim and the abuser, all of this transformed as the energy of forgiveness and forgiving takes place, and all that forgiving is, is going before yourself and choosing to give instead of depriving yourself.

As you go forth in this light, all of that which embodies light, that is Christ reveals itself to you and guides you through this Divine Time. I Mary Magdalene stand with my beloved Jeshua, with our sacred teachers the Essene masters, with our Father, Lord Maitreya in the presence of our cosmic parents, Father/Mother God and as we stand along side you in this environment. We will work together as co-creators in bringing the Golden Age into its full fruition. Take one moment now to consider what it is that may be attaching you to any kind of victim consciousness that you wish to leave behind.

Place whatever you have chosen into a red bubble, visualize two blazing gold and violet flames and toss this red bubble into the flames and you will see how it is incinerated &ndash; but you notice something else is happening now &ndash; this intense heat is giving birth to a crystal, and as the flames die down what is left in its place is a magnificent crystal. This crystal represents the victory consciousness that will replace the victim consciousness that you have now chosen to leave behind. Pick up this crystal. If it is too big for you to wear on your body, visualize it shrinking in size but not shrinking in power. Perhaps you can wear it around your neck or your wrist, place it wherever you choose and acknowledge this crystal as a symbol of what you have left behind as the victim and what you have now chosen to integrate as the Victor, or Victoria. And give thanks. If you are able to physically have such a crystal on your person then we strongly urge you to do so. Finally we give thanks to each of you for the choices you have made upon your journey to assist us in the activation of the violet and golden flames for all of humanity. In the arranging of energy in preparation for the reunion of light grids to be fully manifested in their original power and strength, and the plans of light that Lord Maiterya has for humanity, the portals for the souls that are moving through will remain open for the next 24 hours during which time you will also be blessed by the light of these passing souls. And the patterns of abuse that will also be cleansed by the violet and golden flames anchoring another level of peace on your earth as it is in heaven. May your hearts find peace, my your hearts find true unconditional love through friendship, through romance, through the love that you have with the Divine and with yourself. I am Mary Magdalene, blessings to each and every one of you. Au revoir
